

Fellowship of Academy of Pain Medicine to Dr Archana Deshpande

■ Staff Reporter

NAGPUR'S Pain Physician, Dr Archana Deshpande received Fellowship of Indian Academy of Pain Medicine in the category of senior pain physician. The academy follows the guidelines of International society for the study of pain. Dr Archana is also a recipient of fellowship of Aesculop Academy Germany in Interventional Pain Management. She was invited to present a paper at the World Congress of Pain at Boston, USA held recently. Two of her research papers were published this year in Indian Journal of Pain.

Dr Archana practices holistic pain management including medicines, nerve blocks, epidurals, joint or bursa injections, trigger point injections, dry needling, IMS, counselling and physiotherapy. She is also attached to Indira Gandhi Rugnalaya as honorary Pain Physician where she offers her services to poor and patients